When you get out of the shower, you might want to reconsider using a regular terrycloth towel on your tresses. If you wear your hair natural, or have curly hair, regular towels can make your hair frizzy.

If you want to wrap your hair up post shower and live the lounging life like Joan Collins, then I highly recommend the Wrapadoo ($60, wrapadoo.com). It's a super soft towel that wraps over your head, to keep your wet hair wrapped up and tangle free post-shower. And it comes in different colored cheetah patterns, skulls and bows, and classic colors like turquoise and powder pink.
